ELLA GINGLES CASE

Alleged Torture of Chicago Girl in Bath Room.

LAWYER CALLED HER DEARIE

Judge Had to Keep Attorneys From Wrangling and Fighting—Detective Throws Doubt on Ella's Bath Room Story.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, July 13.—Wrangling of lawyers and further testimony to impeach Ella Gingles' story of alleged torture in a bath room of the Wellington Hotel, on February 16th, marked the closing hours today of the State's case against the young Irish lace maker for larceny of lace from Miss Agnes Barrette, her former employer. Assistant State's attorney B. J. Short announced at night that he would conclude with a few witnesses in the morning. The case will probably reach the jury by Friday evening.

An alibi was furnished for Miss Barrette, proprietor of a lace store in the Wellington Hotel, accused by Miss Gingles of being the moving spirit in the plot to lead her into "white slavery" and helping to abuse and cut her in a bath room of the hotel.

Miss Mary Hale, proprietor of a hair dressing parlor, told of meeting Miss Barrette the evening of February 16 and of attending the theatre with her. Later, she said, they went to Miss Barrette's room and went to bed. All this occurred during the time in which Miss Gingles said she was undergoing mistreatment at the hands of Miss Barrette and her companions.

"Did Miss Barrette have anything to drink that evening?" asked Attorney O'Donnell on cross-examination.

"No, I never saw her touch a drop."

Detective Sergeant McNully told of the actions of Attorney O'Donnell when the defendant's lawyer was informed in a mysterious note that his client was in danger at the Hotel.

"O'Donnell met me in Chief of Detective O'Brien's office," said McNully. "We got a taxicab and O'Donnell directed the driver to go to 474 LaSalle Ave. I asked him why he was going to the house where Miss Gingles roomed first. He said he wanted to make sure that Ella was not at home. He showed us a note which said that she was being killed at the Hotel. Then we went to O'Donnell's office and then to the hotel. O'Donnell told me to go in and see if Miss Gingles was there. I asked the clerk and he said no one of that name was there. We drove back to the station. Captain O'Brien met us and told us to go back to the hotel as Ella was in the bath room. On the way back to the hotel O'Donnell said that there was a man at French Lick who was employing Miss Barrette and Mrs. Kenyon as procuresses. He said the man was Tom Taggart, I believe. When we got to the hotel a second time we found Ella on a bed. She was excited and her skin was scratched a bit. O'Donnell leaned over her and put his arms around her and called her 'dearie'."

The witness then testified that he examined the bath room and found the transom covered with dust, showing that no one had crawled over it as alleged by Miss Gingles.

Attorney O'Donnell asked the witness if he had ever seen the questioner show anything more than a friendly feeling for Miss Gingles. Mr. Short objected, saying this was a self-serving question.

In the debate that followed the lawyers nearly came to blows and the judge interfered.

TRIPLE TRAGEDY IN PENDER

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., July 13.—A triple tragedy was enacted here this morning when Walter Williams, colored, 35 years old, shot and killed Henry Hayes, colored, his wife, Mary Williams, and then himself.

Williams and his wife had not lived happily together and about three weeks ago they agreed to a peaceful separation. They divided their personal effects and Williams left for Georgetown, S. C., where he has a brother living.

Last Sunday he returned here and asked his wife to take him back. This she refused to do and from then on there was trouble in the camp. She was an industrious negro, having gone North and earned over $1,000 cooking which amount she brought back with her and invested it in a nice, comfortable home. She sold to the Burgaw Brick Works the land for their site and purchased other property nearby. In her business transactions she consulted her sister and her sister's husband, Henry Hayes, one of the victims of today's tragedy. This seemed to anger her husband, who thought he should be the one to advise her.

Henry Hayes was a laborer at the brick mill and was working when Williams fired on him. Hayes seems to have been a very good negro. Williams' wife had gone to Hayes several times for protection and this made Williams mad.

About 8:30 o'clock this morning Williams came to the Pender Hardware Co.'s store and purchased ten shells loaded with buck shot, stating that he was going hunting. He got also some "sparkling hyso" and tanked up on this to give himself nerve. He then set out for his victims. Passing the first brick yard he offered a drink to some laborers and then went on to the Burgaw brick works. There he opened some more "hyso" and tanked up further. Seeing his condition Jim Bell attempted to get his gun, but was told he would kill him if he bothered that gun. As he levelled to shoot some one called to Hayes to lookout and he turned his head just in time to receive the full load of buck shot, dying immediately.

Williams then went across the railroad to find his wife. Seeing him coming she started to run, but stopped and started to meet him and when she approached within a few feet, he emptied the second load into her right breast; death was instantaneous. Standing there he loaded again and shot himself in head and fell, but getting up he walked about twenty steps opened his gun, loaded again and emptied the second load into his head. He died in about two hours while being taken to his brother's house.

TRYING FLYING MACHINES

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, July 13.—Orville Wright late today made two unsuccessful attempts to maneuver his aeroplane in the air at Fort Myer. The small area of the field and the unfavorable direction of the wind were largely responsible for the failure of both flights attempted.

The machine arose from the ground on both occasions, but the aviator was obliged to make the turn at the end of the drill field before the "flying speed" had been attained. Greater speed is required for making turns than for straight away flights. On the last attempt a cross-piece connecting the two skids was broken.

On the first trial the machine rose a little more than ten feet and on the second trial a height of about 20 feet was attained.

The German Ambassador, several Congressmen and other distinguished persons were at Fort Meyer to see the expected flight.

A new aeroplane of the monoplane type and embodying several novel features is being built in Washington by John H. Smidley, of Bridgeport, Conn. The inventor intends to bid for the construction of a machine in the event that the signal corps proposes new specifications.

New York, July 13.—Glenn H. Curtiss, in the aeroplane he recently sold to the New York Aeronautic Society, made three flights just before dark this evening near Mineola, L. I. Two of the flights, the first and third, were short, but in the second he remained in the air two minutes and thirty seconds, going in a great circles at the rate of about 40 miles an hour for a total flight of approximately one and two-thirds miles.

EVELYN A WITNESS

State Tried to Make Her Testify Against Husband.

THE COURT PROTECTED HER

State Aimed to Secure Her Admission That Her Husband Threatened Her Life in Asylum—Witness Favorable to Thaw.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

White Plains, N. Y., July 13.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, as pretty as ever, petulant and school girlish, and dressed in the familiar blue which she affected during the trial of her husband, Harry K. Thaw, for the murder of Stanford White ,was on the stand for more than an hour before Justice Mills in the Supreme Court here today, subpoenaed by the State in its fight to keep Thaw in the asylum for the crimnal insane at Matteawan.

But for the absence of the dainty Eton collar, which Mrs. Thaw wore so much during both of the murder trials, she appeared today much the same as she did when Jerome was trying to send Harry Thaw to the electric chair. And though called by the State in an endeavor to prove Harry Thaw irrational what Roger Clarke, the deputy general, drew from her lips today created rather a favorable impression for her husband. She was excused from the stand shortly after 4 o'clock but was re-subpoenaed by the State and will probably appear again tomorrow.

Upon the ultimate outcome of Evelyn Thaw's testimony the State's fight largely rests. Mr. Clarke tried hard today to get her to admit that Thaw had threatened her life when she visited him on one occasion after his commitment to Matteawan. But, turning appealingly to the court, she repeatedly refused to answer his questions, and after a clash between counsel Justice Mills ruled that he would hold the conversation in which the threat is supposed to have been made a confidential one between husband and wife, and therefore, privileged until the State presented proof to show that Daniel O'Reilly, the New York lawyer, who was present at the time, was not then acting as counsel for both Mr. and Mrs. Thaw. She was excused after identifying a number of papers in her husband's handwriting.

Aside from Evelyn Thaw's appearance, which was the sensation of the day, the testimony was much like that of yesterday—accounts by witnesses called by Thaw's counsel, all of whom attested to his apparent soundness of mind.

The eagerness to see Mrs. Thaw was just as intense as when she appeared daily at the Criminal courts. When she left the stand, such a crowd followed her that she had to take refuge in the District Attorney's office.

On the stand she was reluctant to answer Mr. Clarke's questions and had to be instructed to do so a number of times by the court. The tears came to her eyes once when Justice Mills ruled against her and she turned to him and said petulently:

"I guess I will have to obey, for I cannot afford contempt proceedings, or go to jail. My husband is not paying me anything now and I haven't enough money to hire counsel."

Perhaps the most favorable bit of testimony for Thaw today was that of Frank Toomey, his body-guard for five or six months at Matteawan. He said that Thaw had exhibited no irrational tendencies during that time.

The State's representatives announced today that they had retained Dr. Austin Flint and Dr. Charles B. MacDonald, who, with Dr. Amos B. Baker, of Matteawan, will make up the State's trio of alienists along lines agreed upon by counsel yesterday.

The mental examination to test Thaw's sanity is to be conducted in open court by the lawyers prompted by the experts.

THE SAYLOR MURDER

Banker's Love For Daughter Caused Him to Suffer in Silence.

KILLED BY WIFE'S ADMIRER

Evidence Tends to Show That He Was Cruelly Assassinated—Doctor Shot Him at Own Home. Suspected Such Fate.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Watseka, Ill., July 13.—Idolization of his daughter Golda, 17 years old, is said to have caused J. B. Sayler, vice president of the First National Bank, of Crescent City, Ill., to suffer in silence the domestic tragedy that led to his death Sunday night at the hands of Dr. W. R. Miller, who for many months had paid ardent attention to the banker's wife, mother of Golda Sayler.

According to W. R. Nightingale, cashier of the bank of which Mr. Sayler was vice president, the devoted father determined to suffer in silence rather than take any action which would involve his child in notoriety.

"He seemed to fear some tragic solution of the situation," said Mr. Nightingale today. "Whenever he left the city during the last year or so, it was his habit to seek privacy, after which he would reappear with a bulky envelope containing papers.

"'Should anything happen to me, he always told me 'open this packet and follow to the letter the instructions contained therein'.

"After each trip but the last, he destroyed the papers upon his return. He was away a little while ago, but when he came back he failed to follow this practice.

"That packet, I believe, is locked in his private box in the bank's vault. Whether it will shed any light on the tragedy which ended his life I cannot say. The coroner has the key, and will open the box later, possibly after the funeral tomorrow."

That Dr. Miller stood in real danger of lynching last night is asserted by Mr. Nightingale and many others. More than a hundred men thronged the streets of the usually quiet village trying to organize an attack on the jail. One man with a rope was forcibly taken to his home by cooler persons, whose counsel finally prevailed. Among the latter was Willis Sayler, a brother of the slain man.

Dr. Miller's defense is that he shot only when attacked by the banker with a hatchet. Evidence casting a shadow on this statement was given at the inquest.

Sayler was slain about 10 o'clock Sunday night. Mrs. Miller, wife of the doctor, had left a few days previously to visit her parents at Sharon, Pa., and Dr. Miller was taking his meals at the Sayler table and sleeping at his own home. There were also at the Sayler home at the time of the shooting John C. Grunden, father of Mrs. Sayler, and Ira Sayler, her brother. The older Grunden came recently from Ardmore, Okla., to become an inmate of the Soldiers' Home at Danville. Golda Sayler was sent away by her mother a few days ago.

Sunday evening John Grunden went to ask Mr. Sayler, who was occupying a rocking chair on the lawn, to come in and play cards, the two against Dr. Miller and Mrs. Sayler. Mr. Sayler refused, somewhat sharply. His refusal, Mrs. Sayler states, was due to his belief that she and the doctor attained success at the game by a system of signals.

Grace Davis and other girls and Godfrey Ruhle stopped to chat for a moment with Mr. Sayler at the front gate just a few minutes before he was slain. He was in a good humor. They had left Sayler about three minutes when they heard the fatal shots.

Three bullets were found in the banker's body and one in the wall. A fifth bullet was found today embedded in an outside wall, where as the slaying occurred in the house, and a fifth empty shell tallying with the others found in the house was found on the lawn. This fact is connected by the State's Attorney with a wound in Dr. Miller's right wrist.

The doctor's explanation of his damaged wrist is that he was shot by his own pistol during a struggle with Mr. Sayler. The discovery of a fifth empty shell, however, has opened up a line of inquiry to which the State attaches much importance. After the shooting of Sayler, Dr. Miller was alone with the body for a time while the others went for assistance. When they returned, he was complaining of his wounded wrist.

The struggle in the house was witnessed by John Grunden. He declares that Sayler brought a hatchet into the house with him. Mrs. Sayler says her husband came in unarmed and took the hatchet from under a couch. Edward Blantin, a laborer, Dietrich H. Myer, a retired merchant, and Edward E. Meyer, president of the village of Crescent City, assert that they examined the room thoroughly right after the shooting but saw no hatchet.

Mrs. Sayler is said to have betrayed no concern over the disposition of her husband's body, which lay on the floor where it fell, but to have expressed great solicitude over the doctor's wounded wrist.

Although fear of mob violence is no longer felt, Sheriff Heikes placed two extra guards at the jail tonight.

JOHNSON GIVEN SEVEN YEARS

Admitted He is the Mysterious "John Madson" Who Has Married Eighteen Women To Swindle Them of Money.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

San Francisco, July 13.—Christian J. Johnson, Sentenced yesterday at San Jose to serve seven years in the penitentiary for bigamy is reported to have confessed that he is the mysterious "John Madson" wanted in many parts of the country for matrimonial ventures and systematical swindling of a number of women under promise of marriage. Johnson's alleged confession, however, is full of inconsistencies, greatly at variance with statements he has made since his arrest in this city last week. He declares that he has married to so many women that he cannot count them off his hand.

"In 1906", he says, "I quit my business of buying horse and from that day to this time I have been making my living by marrying and making love to women, getting their money and then deserting them."

One of his most amazing features, according to his own confession, was making love to ten women at one time in Portland, Oregon. While he admits that he got money from most of them and that his marriages were part of a get-rich-quick system, Johnson declares that in every instance he spent the money he received upon the victim.

Johnson declares that he was born in Germany and coming to this country in the 70's secured a post with the United States Government buying horses for the army on commission. This took him all over the country. At first, he said he was a woman hater because he had been separated from a sweetheart in Germany who died later. He married the first of his many wives in Springfield, Mass., in 1905. She was Mrs. Mary Brown.

"I married only one woman under the name of John Madson," Johnson declared. "Her name was Jones—if I remember rightly—Ada Jones. I got $1,800 from her because she said she loved me. I could have got $50,000."

From most of the women, Johnson says, he obtained money or jewelry or both. Johnson left today, in custody of a deputy sheriff, for San Quentin prison, where he is to serve a seven years sentence. Of eighteen women whom Johnson married, according to the confession, seven are from California, four from Missouri, two from Oregon, and one each from Kansas, Arkansas, Tennessee, Illinois and Massachusetts.

The woman from Tennessee was Mrs. Betha King, of Memphis, and the one from Arkansas, Mrs. Birdie King, of Hot Springs.

Any Georgian who wants to keep a dog after September 1st will have to pay the State $2.50 for the privilege, if a bill introduced in the House yesterday passes. iSnce Georgia is financially embarrassed, any plan for increasing the revenue is hailed with delight. PROGRESS ON TARIFF BILL

House Completed First Consideration of Bill Last Night—Actual Struggle Between House and Senate Begins Today.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, July 13.—An unexpected burst of speed was exhibited by the tariff conferees tonight and the first consideration of the bill was completed. This included all of the schedules and the free list.

As a result when tomorrow's session begins the actual struggle over the important differences between the House and the Senate wil be opened in earnest. Thus far all of these questions involving raw materials such as iron ore and other metals, wool, cotton, hides and numerous other articles which have been the subjects of heated disputes have been put over after very brief discussions held for the purpose of determining the temper of the representatives of the two branches of Congress.

Members of the Senate committee on Finance are preparing a statement replying to charges that Senate amendments to the tariff bill will result in increasing the cost of woolen and cotton clothing, shoes and other articles of common wear, as well as other necessities of life.

There will follow a list of about 500 decreases in rates from the Dingley duties and a list of about 60 or 75 increases.

The Senate was in session 20 minutes today, adjourning at 12:20 until Friday.

The major portion of the time of the sitting was devoted to a discussion of the unanimous consent agreement not to transact any business while the tariff conference was in progress.

Senator Shively, of Indiana, presented to the Senate a telegram from the President of the Indiana Steel Company protesting against the proposed rate of $3.92 on steel rails per ton. This telegram represents that if that rate is maintained it will be impossible for inland companies to compete with foreign manufacturers at coast points.

Rocky Mount, N. C., July 13.—The Railroaders this afternoon rose up in their might with Fitzpatrick in the box and threw off the hoo-doo which has pursued them relentlessly of late and the game was won from the Sailors in a score of 7 to 1. The game was called at the end of the seventh session on account of rain and darkness, the clouds having been threatening throughout the game.

Sexton and Conn were placed on the firing line for the visitors but they were soon replaced in toto by Levy and Kite, who were apparently powerless to prevent the break in Rocky Mount's favor.

Hard Luck possessed the Sailors from the very first in yesterday's game. Nichols, first up, hit a screamer to left for two bases, followed by a nice sacrifice by Guerrant, but Levy was out second to first and Nichols was caught at the marble on a fast double. Rocky Mount scored in the first after Sexton fanned James. Lancaster, next up, was hit by a pitched ball and Lambert followed this with a bingle over second; then after Murray flew out to centre and Walsh was up, Lancaster crossed the rubber on a passed ball, Lambert going to third; Walsh was out second to first.

In the second Brodie was hit by a pitched ball but after Sharp fanned, he was out trying second; Jayes singled over short and stole second but Hyames fouled out to third. Rocky Mount sent another over in its half when after Libby fanned, Mangus was hit by a pitched ball and went to third when Thorpe singled to centre; Fitzpatrick was up and Thorpe stole second while Magnus scored. Then to atone for past offenses Sex fanned both Fitzpatrick and James.

In the third Conn was out short to first and Smith, batting for Sexton, was out to catcher; Nichols flew to third. In Rocky Mount's half, Levy and Kite replaced Sexton and Conn on the firing line and Smith went to right. Lancaster was given a base on balls in spite of the protests of Kite; Lambert sacrificed him a base and he scored on Murray's single to centre; Walsh was out to pitcher and Lbby flew to first.

Guerrant, Levy and Brodie were out from the infield in the fourth and for Rocky Mount Mangus fanned, Thorpe and Fitzpatrick flew to the outfield. Sharp started the fifth with a neat placement past second and Jayes sacrificed him while Hyames next up hit a scorcher to centre for two extra pegs and Sharp scored, but Kite flew to second and Smith to left. Rocky Mount's fifth was a base to James on error of short, sacrifice by Lancaster, single over short by Lambert and a stifling of James at the home plate on Murray's hit to Guerrant, Walsh retiring the side on fly to Guerrant.

Nichols, Guerrant and Levy were out in order in the sixth and for Rocky Mount after Libby and Mangus were out short to first; Thorpe singled to centre and stole second but Fitzpatrick put an end to the period by flying to centre.

In the seventh, after which the game was called on account of rain, Brodie and Sharp flew out and Jayes hit a triple to left, but it availed naught as Hyames fanned. Rocky Mount got busy in its half when James led off with a single, Lancaster bunted safely; Lambert did likewise and on wild throw of Levy to third James crossed the pan; Murray then hit to left scoring Lancaster and Lambert; Walsh was then safe on error of Guerrant and Libby homed Murray by a hot one to short; Mangus then hit to second, forcing Libby and was retired himself at first on a pretty double.

SOUTHERN SEAPORTS.

In yesterday's Charlotte Observer, we find a timely and invaluable article on "Southern Seaports." The Observer was broad enough to have in view all the important ports of the South, but special emphasis was laid upon Wilmington and its project for a 30-foot navigable channel from the harbor out to sea. Our esteemed contemporary thus helps along that great project for the development of the commerce of Wilmington and of the entire State of North Carolina:

"Instead of Mr. E. H. Harriman being anxious to withdraw from the coastwise carrying business in steamers to and from Southern ports, the good news comes that he is more interested than ever in that class of commerce—so much so that two new steamships are to be built for his ocean line out of Southern ports. We hold the conviction that in the near future this remarkable railroad man will have acquired such an interest in railway lines to South Atlantic ports as will make those ports important points for exports and imports between other American and foreign ports and leading interior markets of our country. Mr. Harriman evidently has his eye on two or three South Atlantic ports and is maneuvering to get control of railroads leading to them. His purpose is to establish steamship lines between these Southern cities on the coast and the big market ports of America and other countries. Wilmington, we feel sure, will be one of these ports. The railway connections it has recently been able to make and others which are assured for the near future will give North Carolina's seaport as great prominence as any seacoast town on the South Atlantic.

"In order to realize Wilmington's possibilities it must be given a deep channel to the ocean. Too much stress cannot be laid upon this need. The whole State is concerned in the matter. If North Carolina is to have a seaport in keeping with the demands of the commerce of the State it will be secured through the united efforts of the people of the whole State. Business men in Charlotte and other inland sections of this State should be interested in the improvement of Wilmington's harbor, as well as the merchants and shippers of the latter city. The deepening of the river from the city to the sea is not a local enterprise by any means. It is a matter of State interest. The Congressmen from the interior districts should work as hard to secure this deep water channel for Wilmington as does the member from that district. There should be co-operation among all our Congressmen to secure action by Congress and the business men in all parts of the State should unite in giving our Representatives in Congress the support they should have to enable them to succeed in securing the necessary assistance from the national government.

"If the people will give Mr. Harriman the backing in the way of showing interest in having Southern seaports made important ports of entry and export he will do the work with the railroads and the steamships, and Congress will appropriate the necessary funds for securing the needed depth of water when it finds that the movement is general and not merely a matter of local concern."

The Observer is quite correct when it states that the 30-foot channel project is not a Wilmington movement, solely, but deeply concerns the whole State. The Observer is an able assistant in securing this development for handling the State's commerce and it does well in reminding all North Carolina Congressmen that it is a part of their duty to stand shoulder to shoulder with Congressman Godwin in securing the necessary appropriation to fit the Cape Fear river and bar for the rapidly increasing commerce that comes to this port, not alone from North Carolina, but from several States.

Many complaints of unjust and discriminatory freight rates come from interior cities in North Carolina, and according to the rulings of the Inter-State Commerce Commission and the State Commissions the only relief can be had in securing a deep water basis for fixing freight rates. Charlotte and all other cities in rail communication with Wilmington would rise in importance as competing points, if we can get the deep water transportation that the business of the port now requires and which is an actual necessity for the important and growing cities of North Carolina. With Wilmington now standing as the fourth cotton exporting port in the America, and the State standing close to the top in her production and manufacture of cotton, tobacco and other products, there is every reason why the Government should make the port of Wilmington equal to the pressing demands of a commerce that only awaits deeper water.

PRESIDENT TAFT'S WILMINGTON VISIT.

The Charlotte Chronicle drops this paragraph:

"The Wilmington people ought to gain another active friend for the 30-foot project on the occasion of President Taft's visit to that city."

Of course, the Wilmington people never thought o fthat when they extended that invitation to President Taft, but we wanted to have the opportunity of honoring the President of the United States and extending to him the Cape Fear welcome and hospitality that makes Wilmington famous.

Incidentally while the President is here, he will realize at once that he is in the Fourth Cotton Exporting Port of America, and the probability is that before he comes he will look over the Government statistics showing that the port of Wilmington made the greatest and most notable increase in her exports and imports of all the South Atlantic ports since the census of 1900.

The information comes from Washington that the President expects to be away from Washington two months on this Southern and Western trip this Fall. It was first announced that he would visit Wilmington and a few other points that were fortunate enough to be mentioned in connection with a port of Wilmington's importance, but it is now stated that President Taft's itinerary will be materially extended and his trip probably will break the record of all other Presidential trips. For instance, this was sent out from Washington on Sunday:

"The President himself did not include in the tentative list which was published all of the places where he expects to stop long enough to make an address and hold a brief car-end reception. The itinerary was made up of those cities where the President will spend from one to three days."

It will be noticed that the President will spend from one to three days in those cities which were named in the itinerary first given out. Wilmington was one of those and as he will feel perfectly at home when he gets to this city ne will be expected to stay over here the full three days and then some more.

Meanwhile he will observe for himself that if Wilmington has grown to be the fourth contributor to the Nation's commerce in cotton, even with our present navigation facilities, he will readily perceive what can be done with a 30-foot channel from Wilmington to sea.

COL. BRYAN'S GLASS HOUSE.

The Washington Herald says:

"Hasn't Senator Simmons as much right to be against free lumber as Mr. Bryan has to be against free barley?" inquires the Wilson (N. C.) Times. Still, you cannot prove that two wrongs make a right a whit more conclusive than you can prove that two rights make a wrong."

"But nobody is trying to prove that two wrongs make a right. The point in this case is that Mr. Bryan is not in a position to criticise Senator Simmons for opposing free lumber in a Republican tariff, when Mr. Bryan opposed free barley in a Democratic tariff."

The Landmark terseley makes it plain, that whether the position of Senator Simmons is right or wrong, the point aimed at is that Col. Bryan lives in a galss house but has rushed out and violated the time-honored aphorism that people in his position really and positively shouldn't have the temerity to throw stones. It never has been conceded that the kettle got anything for itself when it tried to throw off on the pot for being black.

Even Col. Bryan's sincerest friends and admirers acknowledge that he either forgot his record on barley and some other things or has neglected to confess that he was wrong but youthful when he opposed free barley in a Democratic tariff bill. Either a confession or an apology is due.

EDITOR CALDWELL HAS RELAPSE

The Star exceedingly regrets to note that a special to the Asheville Citizen from Charlotte under date of July 10th, states that Dr. J. P. Caldwell, editor of the Charlotte Observer, was taken back to the hospital that night and "his condition is reported as being anything but promising." Dr. Caldwell had a stroke of paralysis several months ago, and his condition was so improved that a few weeks ago he was able to attend the State press convention at Hendersonville. On his return from Hendersonville he spent a few days at the Battery Park Hotel, in Asheville, and at that time he was congratulated by his host of friends upon his apparent regain of health.

We are sure that the people of North Carolina will be pained to learn that the Observer's editor has received a back-set, but let us hope that his condition is not so unfavorable as the Asheville Citizen's dispatch would indicate.

"Necessity is the mother of invention," we are reminded by the Jacksonville Times-Union. Even if she is, the invention of all kinds of excuses about actually needing it for medicine doesn't seem to get you much of it.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

An exchange suggests to us: "During this hot weather fans will keep you cool." Yes, and they'll make it warm for you, too, if you don't talk up for the home team.

It is now announced by that New York doctor that Early, the North Carolinian, hasn't got the leprosy, but is suffering with "dermatitis Venenata." Uh-huh!

In Washington they are now talking about an elastic currency. We are for it, buddy. Let 'em do something to make a dollar stretch a heap farther.

In the Ella Gingles trial in Chicago, it is hard to tell when the lies begin and where they end. Everybody seems to lie like Ella.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The Savannah Press evidently thinks that time flies fast in North Carolina. It says that State has been dry a year or more. But perhaps some North Carolinians feel that way, and The Press got it from them.—Augusta Herald.

—The efforts of the Republican leaders to find some new object to tax recall a story of Faraday. He was explaining to Gladstone and several others an important discovery in science. Gladstone's only comment was: "But, after all, what use is it?" "Well, sir," said Faraday, 'there is every probability that you will soon be able to tax it,'"—Louisville Post.

—The sanitary advantages of individual drinking cups in stations and trains have long been recognized by the railway companies. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has just installed one of the new systems of individual drinking cup machines at both Camden and Mount Royal stations, Baltimore. The cups are made of white paraffin paper, arranged in slot machines, which work automatically. By dropping a penny in the slot one of these paper cups is dropped into the hand and becomes the property of the user. The cups are absolutely sanitary, eliminating any possibility of contamination with dirt of contagious disease.—Salisbury Post.

—According to a bulletin of the United States Department of Agriculture 718,061,380 pounds of tobacco were produced in this country in 1908. Of this amount 539,414,905 pounds were produced by states reached by the lines of the Southern Railway. Kentucky, North Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and South Carolina grew more than 72 per cent. of the total crop of the United States. The production of the different States in pounds was: Kentucky, 195,600,000; North Carolina, 134,000,000; Virginia, 114,100,000; Tennessee, 52,000,000; South Carolina, 25,085,000. Approximately, $50,000,000 was the farm value of the South's production of tobacco on December 1.—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

—The Insurance Agent—Sure your heart isn't weak? The Insured One—Oh, yes, yes. The Agent—Ever test it? The Insured—Yes, indeed. I watched a 15-inning ball game with the score 1 to 1.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—Teddy—I wish I hadn't fought Jimmy Brown this morning. Mamma—You see now how wrong it was, don't you dear? Teddy—Yes, 'cause I didn't know till this afternoon that he was going to give a party.—Kansas City Journal.

Scientists has found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men, who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. Today the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown, of Alexander, Me., is largely from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me, I could not have lived," he writes, "suffering as I did from a severe lung trouble and stubborn cough." There's $113.00 in this Piano For You NEVER before has there been devised a piano-selling plan that saves you so much money or offers such opportunities for free musical education as the Ludden & Bates Piano Club. Join it and you save one-third your piano money—$113—in cash. We sell you for only $287 an elegant cabinet grand piano equal to any $400 piano made, and include with it a complete course of instruction without a cent additional cost. You pay $25 when you become a club member and the balance on easy payments.

This wonderful club offer is due to our plan of selling 100 pianos at a time instead of one. By our plan it costs but little more to sell one hundred than to sell one; besides we are wholesalers and sell to you at the wholesale price, saving the dealer's profit—and all this tremendous saving in selling cost is divided with you.

The Ludden & Bates New Scale PIANO

is backed by a lifetime guarantee to be perfect in every respect—thousands of satisfied customers, many in your neighborhood, will tell you this.

You run no risks in joining this club. If the head of the family dies, we cancel the club contract and give you the piano without payment of another cent. You have everything to gain and nothing to lose.

The Ludden & Bates Club Piano is a full cabinet grand with special copper-wound and steel strings, perfect scale, light, even touch, genuine ivory keys. Magnificent cases of first grade walnut, mahogany or oak. Rich, clear, "singing" tone found only in highest grade pianos.

Write us at once for application blank and description of our club plan. Our experts will select any piano you desire and we'll stake our reputation on furnishing a perfect instrument. Stool and scarf free. Write to-day, as club is now forming.

RAILROAD DEVELOPMENTS

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 13.—The signing of the ancilliary order by Judge Connor, of the United States Court, for the foreclosure sale of the Norfolk & Southern Railroad, in the hands of receivers the past several months, gives renewed impetus to talk among well informed railroad men hereabouts that the Norfolk & Southern, with principal North Carolina holdings, the Atlantic & North Carolina and the Raleigh & Pamlico Sound roads, will pass into the hands of the Norfolk & Western.

It is pointed out that under the North Carolina laws neither the Southern nor the Seaboard Air Line could be a bidder and the Atlantic Coast Line would scarcely be a bidder. On the other hand tnere are a number of vital reasons why the Norfolk & Southern would want this property. By constructing a link from Raleigh to Durham a new through line for outlet for the Norfolk & Western coal traffic would be established covering a large part of Eastern Carolina that would otherwise be invaded by the Seaboard Air Line and Clinchfield roal coal carrying combination just looming up as one of the great coal combinations of tne country.

The construction of the link from Durham to Raleigh for the Norfolk & Western to connect with the Norfolk & Southern, would be of incalculable value to this city in a commercial way. Indeed it is the general verdict that there is no disposition of the Norfolk & Southern that could more greatly benefit Raleigh or the whole of Eastern Carolina than for it to fall into the hands of the Norfolk & Western. This prospect along with that of a link of road from Spring Hope to Raleigh to bring the Atlantic Coast Line into the Capital City give to business interests here especial buoyancy and sanguine hopes of rapid growth.

H. C. McQueen, president of the Murchison National Bank, of Wilmington, was here today with George Rountree, Esq., as counsel, appearing before the Corporation Commission relative to the corporate excess tax levy against the bank by the Commission. Representatives of the corporations in all parts of the State are coming for these conferences as they are receiving notices of the corporate excess tax levies being made against them, a work that has heretofore been done by the State Auditor and is being considerably advanced, it is understood, by the Corporation Commission.

A charter is issued for the Dixie Knitting Mills Co., Forest City, Rutherford county, capital $50,000 authorized and $25,000 subscribed by G. P. Reid, C. A. Wilkie, W. W. Hicks, W. C. Bostic and others. Other charters are to the Bush Creek Lumber Co., Franklinville, $20,000 capital by G. A. Black and others; The Granite Quarry Literary Club, Salisbury, by Homer R. Miller and others; The Cabarrus Social Club, Gibson Mills, by Paul B. Moore and others; and the Boon River Lumber Co., Bethel, Pitt county, capital $10,000, by E. O. Burroughs and others.

Leonard Shaw, an 80-year-old negro, was arraigned in Superior Court today for his life on the charge of the murder of David Hall, a young negro who had induced the old man's granddaughter to slip away from home against his will to attend a neighborhood party near Garner. The trial is set for Thursday of next week.

—Raleigh News and Observer: With improvements that are to be considered notable going on over the Seaboard Air Line System, despite the fact that it is in the hands of receivers, the shops of the road in Raleigh are receiving attention also, and in the improvements here it is said that about $4,000 is now being expended, this in re-roofing the old round house. With the expenditure of over $4,000 in re roofing its buildings in Raleigh it does not seem that the Seaboard Air Line people can be thinking of changing its main line from this city. Besides this work a block telephone system is being installed between Raleigh and Hamlet, a system which will make this section of the road as modern as any in the South, with the chance for mistakes in train dispatch orders reduced to a minimum. The track of the Seaboard between Richmond and Norlina and between Bostic and Hamlet is now being ballasted, the work going on over 250 miles of trackage. It is said that it is the purpose of the Seaboard people to keep up work of this kind until the whole of the main line is put in the best possible shape, a sign that clearly indicates that the Seaboard is working for a great future for itself.

If people with symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble could realize their danger they would without loss of time commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. This great remedy stops the pain and the irregularities, strengthens and builds up these organs and there is no danger of Bright's disease or other serious disorder. Do not disregard the early symptoms. Robt. R. Bellamy.

CONTINUANCE GRANTED.

M. L. Winner Will be Tried Today for Selling Whiskey.

The case of M. L. Winner, a near-beer dealer on the northwest corner of Front and Dock streets, charged with selling whiskey in several instances, was called in the Recorder's court yesterday, but upon the request of Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., who had just been retained as counsel for the defendant with Hon. John D. Bellamy, the hearing was continued until today. When the case was called Hon. John D. Bellamy requested a trial by jury, but this was denied by the Recorder who said that there was no provision in the bill creating the court for a trial by jury. He then made a motion to quash the indictments on the ground that the defendant was entitled to a trial by jury in a court of final jurisdiction. This was also denied, the Recorder holding that the defendant had a right to appeal from his decision to the Superior Court, where he would be given a trial by jury.

WED THIS AFTERNOON

Dr. Edward R. Hines, of Rocky Mount, and Miss Sarah Fonvielle.

The marriage of Dr. Edward R. Hines, a popular young physician of Rocky Mount, and Miss Sarah Fonvielle, a well known and accomplished young lady of this city, will be solemnized this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. E. W. Fonvielle, No. 218 North Second street.

Rev. T. A. Smoot, pastor of Grace Methodist church, will perform the ceremony and the couple will leave on the 3:10 Seaboard train for a bridal tour to Florida and several other Southern States. The wedding will be quiet and only relatives and intimate friends will be present. The marriage will be of much interest to friends here and elsewhere.

Taxed With Costs in Both Cases.

Ernest Lyons, colored, was tried before Justice Bornemann yesterday on the charge of assault and battery upon Viola Belle, colored, at Carolina Beach, and the woman was tried on the charge of stealing $15 in money from Lyons. Lyons was found guilty of assault and the woman was acquitted of the larceny charge. Lyons was taxed with the costs in both cases and owing to the fact that he is a one-legged man, the justice allowed him several days to get up the amount of the costs in order to save the county expense of keeping him in jail.

—Constable Savage yesterday afternoon arrested Ida Norris and Carrie Gray, two colored women, charged with the larceny of two coats from Clayton Thomas, also colored. They were carried before Magistrate Harriss and in default of $50 bonds were committed to jail for trial before the Recorder today.

—The case against Mr. H. J. Everett, charged with a simple assault upon his wife, will very likely be compromised, or settled up in some way without having to go through another trial. The case came up for hearing for the second time before Justice Harriss yesterday at noon and as it appeared that the parties were about to agree a continuance until today was asked and granted.

DIED IN HAVRE, FRANCE.

James M. Judge Passed Away in January—Mother is Notified.

Mrs. S. Judge, No. 113 South Fourth street, has been notified by the American Consul at Havre, France, of the death of her son, Mr. James M. Judge, which occurred on the 4th of last January in a hospital at that place after a short illness. In the letter received by Mrs. Judge from the Consul he stated that he informed the Department of State of the death of Mr. Judge on the 7th of January, but the deceased leaving no papers or letters to show that he had relatives in America, it was impossible to notify them until he received her letter inquiring of his whereabouts.

Young Judge embarked on the Russian barquentine "Mats" which it will be recalled remained in the local port for several months, being held by the Federal court, in which suit had been instituted for salvage. The owners finally settled with the libellant and Mr. Judge left on the vessel when she cleared on the 5th of last November.

Mrs. Judge received a letter from him a short time after the vessel arrived at Havre, France, about the 5th of December, in which he stated that he was in a hospital at that place, but was entirely out of danger and would soon be able to start on the return trip home. Nothing further was heard from him, and the fact that he did not arrive in this country nor write, she became anxious, and addressing a letter to the Consul, she received an immediate reply conveying the sad intelligence of his death. The remains are interred in the Sainte Marie cemetery at Havre.

The deceased was well known in this city, where he had lived for many years, and his many friends will be saddened to learn of his death. There are surviving besides his mother, one sister, Mrs. Herbert Spencer, of this city, and two brothers, Messrs. John W. Judge, of Fayetteville, and Geo. R. Judge, of Baltimore.

THE CRONLY POSTOFFICE.

Patrons of Mail Service Complain of Unsatisfactory Conditions There.

Regarding unsatisfactory conditions in the handling of the mails at Cronly, N. C., which is alleged to have existed for some time, the Star has been furnished with the following representation of the case to the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General at Washington, D. C., signed by 103 residents of the community, with a request that the same be published:

"Cronly, N. C., July 10, 1909.

"Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, Washington, D. C.

"Greeting:—The undersigned patrons of the Cronly, Columbus county, N. C., postoffice respectfully set forth the following facts and petition:

2nd. Formerly, and up to within two weeks ago, the postoffice was located in the central part of the town, but has since been removed to the home of the postmistress, a distance of half a mile from the former location, and beyond the town limits.

3rd. The effect of the removal of the postoffice as aforesaid is to work a great hardship and inconvenience to patrons. When the postoffice was located within the corporate limits of the town the early morning mail from Wilmington, N. C., (the natural market for the town of Cronly and section) was distributed by 7 o'clock A. M.; but since the removal of the postoffice beyond the town limits, this mail is not distributed until after noon.

4th. The reason for the dislocation of the mail is that the postmistress will not receive the mail from the early morning train, so that this mail is carried westward until it meets the eastbound train where it is exchanged and is brought back to Crouly at 12:30 P. M., and is rarely ever distributed before 2:30 P. M.

5th. The inability to get the morning mail from Wilmington is a serious handicap to the orderly dispatch of business. The morning paper with market quotations and communications from business men are in effect delivered one day late, because it is impossible to answer correspondence on the same day that mail is received, or to avail of market quotations furnished by the morning paper.

In view of the foregoing facts, we respectfully represent that a postoffice is established and maintained for public convenience, and that it is against the spirit of public service for a public appointee to office to consult personal convenience and comfort at the serious inconvenience and harm of the public; and yet the facts above set out clearly establish that the postoffice at Cronly is being conducted with the view to promote the personal comfort of the postmaster rather than to advance the cause of the public interest. Your petitioners, therefore, respectfully request that you take immediate steps to remedy these troubles by requiring the postoffice to be restored to the town of Cronly and the postmaster to receive the early morning mail as heretofore."

THAT GATE AFFAIR.

County Chairman McEachern Makes Statement in Reply to Card.

Chairman D. McEachern, of the New Hanover Board of County Commissioners, in an interview yesterday regarding the recent card of criticism from Harrison Creek, Pender county, with reference to the automatic gate in the line fence between the two counties, gave the entire history of the installation of the "much mooted" gate, stating that the same was installed at the instance of Mr. E. D. Pearsall, a rural letter carrier on one of the routes out of Rocky Point, who asked to put in the contrivance and the commissioners permitted the same to be put in only on condition that the county be not taxed for the constant repairs required by such gates. The gate has recently been so troublesome, he says, that the Commissioners have ordered it out and will install a new gate there of substantial pattern and one not so easy to get out of order. Regarding the card which appeared in the Star a few days ago, criticising the Commissioners of this county for not paying a repair bill, the following cards, self explanatory, have been furnished the Star with a request that they be published:

"Castle Hayne, N. C., July 12th.

"To Whom it May Concern:

"This is to certify that no Commissioner or Supt. of Roads of New Hanover county or any other citizen of said county, has ever employed me to do any work on the county gate.

"Publisher Star:—In communication signed 'Live Wire' credited to me I will say that I was misinformed as to the gate which I find is not in good condition. I allowed my name to be used on the information received but with no intention to injure anyone.

"W. O. JOHNSTON.

"I was present when Mr. W. O. Johnston wrote the above, and during the conversation he stated that Mr. E. D. Pearsall wrote the article signed 'Live Wire,' published in the Morning Star, and requested him to allow it to be published as coming from him to which he, W. O. Johnston, consented, but next day found he had been misinformed as the gate was not in good condition.

A QUEER WATERMELON

Policemen George and Hall Make Interesting Discovery.

To Patrolmen Frank George and T. M. Hall belongs the credit for the discovery of a new kind of seedless watermelon, and one that is of fine flavor and juicy, too. This interesting discovery was made in Brooklyn late Monday night.

The officers met a negro man in Terry's alley, between Third and Fourth and Bladen and Brunswick streets, and he had a well filled sack on his back. Naturally the officers inquired what the bag contained and the negro replied that it was a seedless watermelon. It looked rather large for a watermelon, even of the seedless variety, and the officers decided to see on the inside of the sack. Instead of a watermelon they found that the sack contained a five-gallon keg of whiskey, addressed to a Wilmington man to whom the negro said he was to deliver it. The officers accompanied the negro to the home of the addressee who claimed the whiskey and evidenced his indignation that the officers would suspect him of being a "blind tiger."

No Blame Attached to Bizzell.

DEATH OF CAPT CHAMBERS

Esteemed Veteran and Citizen Passed Away Last Night.

The death of Captain John Joseph Chambers, an esteemed citizen and Confederate Veteran, occurred early last night at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. P. McClammy, No. 620 South Front street, after an illness of some time, and the news will be learned with infinite sorrow by his many friends in this city and elsewhere.

Captain Chambers was born in this city, August 15, 1843, and was 66 years of age. He served valiantly through the four years of the War between the States, entering the army when he was only 17 years old at Charleston, S. C. Returning from the latter place he joined Captain E. D. Hall's Company, known as the "Tigers," and remained with them until the close of the war.

He was a marine engineer by trade, having served his time in the old Wilmington & Weldon shops before the war, and following this occupation he worked for some 20 years in Norfolk and about 15 years in Florida. Captain Chambers was a member of the Marine Engineers' Fraternal Association No. 101, of Norfolk.

For some time past he had been residing with his sister in this city, and besides Mrs. A. P. McClammy, there are surviving an aunt, Mrs. Caroline Stolter; one nephew, Mr. R. P. McClammy, of this city, and two nieces, Mrs. R. A. Culpepper, of Wilson, and Mrs. J. R. Kennedy, of Wilmington.

The funeral will be conducted from the home, No. 620 South Front street this afternoon at 5 o'clock, Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church, officiating, and the remains will be interred in Oakdale cemetery.

Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells conducted the sad and impressive services following which the remains were conveyed to Oakdale cemetery, where they were interred. Mrs. Russell formerly lived in Wilmington and had many close friends here, who sent many beautiful floral tributes.

ALDERMEN ON CUSTOM HOUSE

The Board of Aldermen held an important called session at the City Hall last night and among the matters considered was the deeding the city's interests in the alleys on the proposed site of the new Custom House to the United States government, action being deferred with a view of getting the government to decide to purchase the entire block surrounded by Second and Third and Princess and Market streets for the erection of the building.

The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock with Mayor Walter G. MacRae presiding and all members present, except Aldermen Hinton and Yopp. Mr. Hutaff, representing C. S. Riley & Cocpany, appeared before the Board and asked that an appropriation be made for badly needed improvements on Nixon street, from the hospital to the railroad, near the Wynnewood Lumber Co., a distance of four blocks. On motion the Board appropriated $2,000 for the work.

Custom House Matter.

J. O. Carr, Esq., who is associated with District Attorney Harry Skinner in getting up data relative to the new Custom House, appeared before the body and presented a long resolution drawn by the District Attorney providing that the city deed to the government its interests in the alleys on the site proposed for the Custom House, between Princess and Market streets, on the river front. Mr. Carr explained that the government was anxious to know the attitude of the Board of Aldermen before starting the condemnation proceedings, reference to which was made in The Star last week. District Attorney Skinner spent the past week here looking over the situation, leaving Saturday night for his home. Mr. Carr was asked if the government contemplated a United States court room in the Custom House building and he said in reply that it hadn't been definitely decided, but that the impression seemed to be that the court room would be in the new building as the present one was rather small and complaint had been made regarding the noise.

"Whereas, a resolution has been offered by the District Attorney of the United States for the Eastern District of North Carolina, asking the city of Wilmingon to convey to the United States government certain alley-ways specifically set out in said resolution, and,

"Whereas, it is the purpose of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Wilmington to do all in its power to assist the government in obtaining a desirable site for the Custom House, to be located and erected in the city of Wilmington at the least possible cost to the government, and,

"Whereas, in the opinion of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Wilmington, N. C., the government can obtain a more advantageous and desirable site for the location of said building, and,

"Whereas, it is the purpose of the city of Wilmington to use its best endeavors to assist the government in obtaining a site,

"Therefore, be it resolved, by the Board of Aldermen of the city of Wilmington, that the resolutions and requests be referred to the Mayor, three members of the Board of Aldermen to be appointed by the Mayor and the City Attorney to confer with the District Attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina, and that their report be made at as early a date as practicable, and that the same be submitted to the Board of Aldermen for action.

"Resolved further, that in the event that no site can be obtained more desirable than the one at present suggested, and in the event that the government decides to purchase the site now offered, that if in the opinion of the City of Wilmington that the said alleys can be legally conveyed without condemnation proceedings, that then the proper authorities will execute such deeds as are necessary to convey said alleys without condemnation proceedings."

Mr. B. F. Keith, Collector of Customs, said that the government had already decided on the site and it was not a question of whether or not a more desirable site could be obtained. He urged the Aldermen to acquiesce in the request of the government which would assure a handsome structure for the Custom House.

The resolution passed the board without a dissenting vote, after which Alderman Bonitz exhibited a drawing he had made of the proposed Custom House located in the centre of the block surrounded by Second and Third streets and Princess and Market, the vacant space around the building to be utilized for a park with public lavatory in one corner, monument on one side and other attractive features. He said that he thought the property could be purchased for $150,000, and would be far more desirable than the site proposed on the water front as it would be located where it would be seen by all visitors to the city. Mr. Keith said that the government officials would say that they wanted a Custom House here and it was not their business to look out for a park.

The following resolution, read by Alderman Bonitz, was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, Congress of the United States has made an appropriation for the acquisition of certain land necessary for the construction and enlargement of the Custom House and other government offices in the city of Wilmington, N. C., and,

"Whereas, the United States desires to acquire such a site for said Custom House and other governmental offices as will be advantageous to the government, and,

"Whereas, the Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington believe that a more advantageous site can be selected than the one now being considered by the government, certainly as advantageous and much more acceptable to the citizens than the one now offered, and,

"Whereas the erection of such a magnificent building by the government is hailed with delight by the citizens of Wilmington, as the construction of such a building would not only beautify our city, but the fact of the expenditure of so large an amount of money in the construction of the governmental building, as the one contemplated would enhance the property of our community and the architectural beauty of said building would be such as to be admired by all of our citizens, and,

"Whereas, the Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington are honestly anxious and desirous of assisting as far as possible the government in securing a site, not only advantageous to the government but one that when our citizens desire to admire the architectural beauty of the Custom House, will not be forced to take a boat and ride across the river in order to observe same.

Therefore, be it resolved, by the Board of Aldermen that a committee of three be appointed with the Mayor as chairman of said committee and that said committee be authorized and empowered to visit the City of Washington and interview the Secretary of the Treasurer and lay before him such plans and such sites as in their opinion can be purchased, and request the Secretary of the Treasurer to investigate the advantages both for the present and future of said sites before closing the contract of purchase or the institution of condemnation proceedings for the site now offered.

"Resolved further, That the committee appointed by the Mayor from the Board of Aldermen together with the mayor and chairman go to Washington City at as early a date as practicable, and make their report to the Board of Aldermen immediately upon their return."

Alderman Stone suggested the retiring of the water works bonds of $75,000 and moved that an offer of 102 be made for them. He said it would mean a saving to the city of a large sum. The city attorney was not certain that the bonds could be retired as suggested by Mr. Stone and the motion was withdrawn. The matter was left with the city attorney and finance committee for action.

On motion the City Clerk and Treasurer was instructed to notify Furlong & Company, contractors, that the city would take charge of the work of the removal of garbage and trash from the streets on August 1st. Alderman Karr cast the only dissenting vote against the motion. It is hoped by that time to have the concurrence of the Board of Audit and Finance in the abolition of the contract system.

The matter of the purchase of a crematory in accordance with a resolution passed by the County Sanitary Board was brought up by Alderman West. On motion the mayor and a committee of two members of the Board were instructed to take the matter up, visit cities that have crematories for city refuse and ascertain the cost, etc., and make recommendations to the Board. An appropriation of $100 was made to defray the expenses of the committee and the Mayor and they will visit Washington with reference to the Customs House at the same time they investigate the crematories.

An ordinance presented by Alderman Karr prohibiting the sale of firecrackers over two inches in length and providing for a fine of $25 for its violation was tabled. Alderman Bonitz said that numerous citizens had been to him as chairman of the Streets and Wharves committee and asked that if they furnished the brick, would the city lay sidewalks in front of their property, and he wanted to know from the Board what answer to give them. It has been the custom for a long time to lay the walks where the property owners furnish the material. On motion of Alderman Karr the chairman was given authority to lay the walks, where material is furnished by the property owners.

On motion of Alderman Karr the Board ordered the opening of Dock street from 15th to 17th streets and 17th from Dock to Market.

DIED FROM INJURIES.

Aged Colored Man Who Was Run Over by Coast Line Train.

After lingering for about 48 hours, Harry Peirce, the ante-bellum darkey, who had both legs cut off by a Coast Line train on the yards last Monday, died yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the James Walker Memorial hospital.

The colored man, it will be recalled, was about 85 years old and on account of this fact and his fearful injuries, his condition had been hopeless since the accident. The aged man showed remarkable strength in surviving as long as he did. Both of his legs were almost completely crushed off, and were amputated by Dr. Thomas, the Coast Line surgeon as soon as he reached the hospital.

ALWAYS IMPROVING.

An Appreciation of Wilmington's Leading Hotel and Its Service.

(Communicated.)

A question has recently been asked and answered in full. The question was, "When will The Orton Hotel ever stop improving, and the owner quit spending money to make it the best commercial hotel in North Carolina?"

The answer is, "Never, until the Orton is in a class all by itself."

Mr. J. H. Hinton, owner and proprietor, is about the "hustliest" man we know of, and only recently he has practically had the house gone over entirely, putting in handsome new velvet rugs, decorating, painting and cleaning up generally in all bed rooms, new velvet carpet in dining room and has had the entire room wainscoted with marble, having plate glass mirrors above the wainscoating ;and only last week opened the doors to the new barber shop, which is the handsomest and most complete shop in the South.

Of course this costs a great deal of money, but when one stops to consider the large army of patrons which the hotel entertains constantly, it is not difficult to realize that some of the money comes back.

The Orton is giving excellent service in all departments, that is another thing that attracts and keeps the hotel before the public, and that is the main thing, keeping a hotel in the public eye, because of its being so first-class that people can't help but see it.

DOG WAS HARD TO KILL

Shot Through Body and Head Yet Frequented Old Haunts.

A few days after Dog Catcher Todd started on his rounds of the city in search of collarless canines he took up a large, mangy bird dog which had been lying around the postoffice for a year or more and carried him to the pound. A day or two later the canine was taken to Greenfield Mill Pond and shot through the body and again in the head, being left there for dead. About a week later Chief of Police Williams noticed a dog in the postoffice which resembled the one carted away and shot. He notified Mr. Todd, who afterwards ascertained that it was the same dog. The canine was again taken out and shot, seven bullets being put into his body. It is thought that he is dead, but Chief Williams would not be surprised to see the dog back at his old haunts at any time.

AN INVITATION TO WOMEN.

The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, of Lynn, Mass., cordially invite any woman interested to call at their laboratory at Lynn, Mass., and see for herself the care which is taken with the vast correspondence received from the women of this country. No letter or testimonial has ever been made public without the written wish or consent of the writer. No confidence has ever been violated, and never in their history have they sold or disposed of any of their letters from women. It is for these reasons that thousands of suffering American women every year feel free to write Mrs. Pinkham for her valuable advice, which is always given free of charge.

A DELIGHTFUL NORTHERN TOUR.

SEABOARD AIR LINE.

Mr. C. H. Gattis, D. P. A. and Mr. Jas. Ker, Jr., C. P. A., Seaboard Air Line, are arranging what will certainly be the most popular and delightful tour of the season, especially is this so as the party leave the Carolinas on September 1st, 1909, the most delightful time of the whole year to go on your Summer trip, and they will visit all the principal points of interest in the North—Washington, Niagara Falls, Toronto, Thousand Islands, Montreal, Quebec, Saratoga, Ausable Chasm, Four days in New York City, and Philadelphia, and all the New York theatres will be open for the Fall. An attractive feature of this tour will be the trip up the Historic Potomac, passing the Grand Old palatial home of "The Father of His Country."

The trip is to be made at the lowest possible figure consistent with the first-class hotels and other things connected with the tour, which will include railroad fare, Pullman, hotel accommodations, meals, sight-seeing trips, transfers and in fact, everything, with the exception of meals in New York, and a few other minor expenses, nearly all the sight-seeing trips are included. This last feature is a very good one as it will enable the party to spend their time seeing the sights without the bother of the details, which will be looked after by Mr. Gattis and Mr. Ker, both of whom have had wide experience in this branch of the passenger service. Time will be spent in Toronto during the Canadian Exposition, and stops will be made at all points of sufficient length to enable the party to see all the points of interest without hurrying. Mrs. Gattis and Mrs. Ker will chaperone the tour, and ladies should not hesitate to go alone. The tour will prove a most attractive one. A very attractive illustrated booklet containing detailed information can be had upon application by letter or in person to the undersigned, and those interested should write at once, as the party will positively be limited, and those applying first will get the lower berths, so it will be to your advantage to book early. Every detail has been arranged with the view to making this a most delightful and comfortable tour for all.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Winston-Salem, N. C., July 12.—The Imperial Tobacco Company has purchased the business of Currin and Coleman Brothers, leaf tobacco dealers, and has stationed E. W. Dixon, of Danville, to represent the foreign corporation on this market.

—Winston-Salem, N. C., July 12.—Mrs. James Jones, residing near Rural Hall, while gathering grape leaves Saturday, was bitten on the arm by a snake. The swelling passed from one arm to the other and her condition today as regarded hopeless. The swelling is extending over Mrs. Jones' body.

—Durham, July 12.—Walter Hobbs, the noted blind tiger, was today sentenced by Judge Sykes to seven years on the county roads. Hobbs withdrew his appeal and agreed to pay the costs in the cases and take three years an the roads, asking to begin at once. Solicitor Everett agreed and he went to the roads. Judge Sykes followed the severe punishment with an eighteen months' sentence on Jim Hays and sent up Hayes' wife.

—Durham, July 12.—Revenue Officers Starbuck, Bailey and Blaylock went on a still hunt for a blockade still over in Randolph county Saturday night, and long about one o'clock Sunday morning, near Gray's chapel, located a big one hundred gallon capacity distillery of the very latest and most approved pattern. The still had apparently been in operation for some time, and a big lot of beer was found and destroyed, though no whiskey nor operators were found. The outfit was captured and it is thought the owners are known and will yet be arrested.

—Durham, July 12.—Gen. Julian S. Carr is farmer as much as philanthropist and returned Saturday afternoon from Occoneechee, where he had observed 980 bushels of wheat threshed from 23 acres of ground, a yield of 43 and 1-2 to the acre. This is but the beginning of his product, however. He has 107 acres yet to run through the machine and if that yield is maintained, he will have more than 5,000 bushels of wheat this year at an average of about 40 bushels to the acre. It is an uncommon ratio that he sustains, undoubtedly few farms in the State can equal it. He is owner of the Carolina mills and from his own farm he will make much of his favorite "Peerless" flour.

—Hope Mills, N. C., July 12.—Rev. I. W. Hughes, of Fayetteville, who has been supplying the Episcopal church here, announced yesterday that owing to press of work he had been unable to give the church here as much time as he should and had arranged to have Rev. Mr. Duncan, of Wilmington, to conduct services the fourth Sunday morning and night. Mr. Hughes has made many friends here by his hearty handshake, genial smile and strong sermons who will regret to lose him. tery.

—Louisburg, July 12—A jail delivery occurred here this morning about 3 o'clock. Jailer High discovered one of the prisoners, Phil Alston, who is held under an indictment for murder, walking the streets this morning and not seeming to be in a hurry about leaving, was locked up again. Upon investigation, it was found that all the doors were locked as they were left last and Alston says that the other negro, Bill Evans, broke out of the cells with a crowbar, which was left by the workmen who had been putting in a new cell, and then picked the locks with a wire. How he secured the crow bar on the inside of the cell and how the outside door was opened, which cannot be opened from the inside, is a mystery and every one thinks that had outside assistance. There were only these two men in the jail at the time and the negro Bill Evans is still at large.

—Concorn, July 12.—Sam Gibson, a young negro, and a good farm hand, living on the plantation of Mr. William H. Bost in No. 10 township, shot and killed his wife about 1 o'clock this morning, thinking the woman was some one coming into his rom for the purpose of robbery or something else. His wife had gotten out of bed and went to the door, but as the door was so fastened that she could not get out, she then went to a window, and was in the act of re-entering the house when Gibson awakened and took deliberate aim with his shotgun, which proved almost instant death to the woman. Sheriff Honeycutt and Coroner Howard Caldwell were called to the scene early this morning, and while the verdict agrees with the man's claim that the shooting was an accident the negro is being held in jail. Gibson had been married only since last November, and was very superstitious. It has been stated on the streets in this city today, however, that Gibson and his wife have recently figured in a magistrate's court with cases against each other.

Sees Mother Grow Young.

"It would be hard to overstate the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick of Danforth, Me. "Although past 70 she seems really to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for 20 years. At last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed till Electric Bitters worked such wonders for her health." They invigorate all vital organs, cure Liver and Kidney troubles, induce sleep, impart strength and appetite. Only 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

THE COTTON MARKET

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 13.—There was general realizing in the cotton market today under which prices eased off very sharply, after making new high records at the opening with the close steady at a net decline of 10 to 17 points. The opening was firm at an advance of 9 to 13 points in response to firm cables, overnight buying orders and a continuation of dry, hot weather in Texas. October contracts sold at 12.85 and December at 12.87 on the call, but this level attracted tremendous profit taking which seemed to come from both small and powerful bulls and while there was heavy buying on a scale downward, the decline was not checked until October had sold at 12.62 and December at 12.61. Then a rally to about the closing figures of yesterday occurred as a result of covering by early sellers for a turn and a partial withdrawal of offerings, but, private wires reporting cooler weather in Texas brought out fresh pressure in the late trading as a result of which October sold at 12.58 and December at 12.57, or some 27 to 30 points below the high level of the morning. The close was only a point or two up from the lowest. The detailed weather reports from Texas showed little improvement in conditions there as compared with the previous-day temperatures at many stations ranging from 100 to 106 degrees and the forecast was for continued fair weather when it is believed that the States needs soaking rains but the cooler weather reported late in the day seemed to relieve apprehensions of further damage to some extent, in addition to which, it is feared that should rains actually occur they might cause still heavier liquidation. The weekly report of the Weather Bureau was without special influence. Southern spot markets officially reported were generally unchanged to 1-4c higher. Estimates of the close placed the extent of the day's realizing at fully 300,000 bales and much of the selling was attributed to precautionary profit taking rather than to any change in the news or in sentiment regarding the ultimate course of prices.

Receipts at the ports today 4,894 bales against 5,499 last week and 6,088 last year; for the week 20,000 bales against 18,897 last week and 25,504 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 1,259 bales against 435 last year and at Houston 244 bales against 1,561 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet, 5 points higher; middling uplands 13.15; middling gulf 13.40; no sales. Futures opened firm and closed steady.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 13.—The dry goods markets are moderately active with prices very strong. Cotton duck has been advanced by the largest producers. Yarns have been advanced from 1-2 cent to 1 cent per pound. Jobbers are doing a fair house trade. Buyers are trying to secure goods at old prices and in some instances are paying the advances. Men's wear semi-fancies for spring are being bought well. Export trade is quiet.

MARKET GOSSIP.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 13.—The narrow limits of the current stock market were marked distinctly again today with the effect of so discouraging the professional element that they seemed tempted to abandon their operations. The net result broadly speaking, was to undo the movement of Monday. It was considered a good omen when United States Steel sold at the opening at 70, after its many coy approaches and retreats in the neighborhood of that figure yesterday. Immediately below that figure there was a very active market for a time, with buying and selling orders quite equally balanced, but the selling became the more urgent and the price ran off.

The news of the day offered small explanation for the price movement. Large requirements on the money market came out.

Stock market operators keep an attentive eye on the crop news and on the tariff bill conference. Some explanation of the disinclination to speculate in stocks might be found in both these topics.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, were $3,038,000. United States 2s declined 1-4 per cent on call.

Total sales of stocks today were 440,200 shares including tobacco 200; C. & O. 3,300; L. & N. 1,300; N. & W. 3,000; Reading 49,500; Sloss 100; Southern Pacific 31,200; Southern Railway 900; United States Steel 116,800; Virginia-Carolina Chemical 9,100.

Standstill at Fayetteville.

Fayetteville, N. C., July 13.—Raleigh and Fayetteville played seven innings to a tie today, the same being called on account of darkness, score 2 to 2. Three times the visitors had men on second, and third with one out but failed to score on Muir, on a second occasion the side being retired by brilliant double plays. Fayetteville twice got two on bases with one out without scoring.

SPATTERS.

Double-crossed!

Can't win all the time.

The Railroaders did the milliner-ing this time.

Besides Rocky Mount needed a game bad.

Jup- Pluv- certainly was good to somebody yesterday.

Glad to see the Raleigh Observer 'Boosts' blossoming out again.

Good for Rocky Mount! For remember, it's something to whip a team like the Sailors.

Wilmington's maskmen were decidedly off, and didn't pull off the winging exhibited by Walsh.

Another bobble for the new shortstop, but he sort of redeemed himself by crashing out a long three-sacker.

Heap Big Injun Thorpe was chief of the swatfest; and also pioneered the paths for stolen bases every little while.

Levy comes in for a share of the praise of the Raleigh dopist, who makes major predictions for the tall slugger and heaver.

The game was played on grounds slushier than a ribbon clerk under a vernal moon; and then had to be called at the end of the 7th due to the damp matter.

Jayes also steered a three-bagger into the outskirts and rung up a single besides; while Nich drove one in the suburbs for two stations, to show he hadn't forgotten entirely about the uses and abuses of tne wagon tongue.

Sexton was stabled at the ending of the second but during the innings he mounded only two hits were culled from his delivery. The boy was a trifle wild, in hitting two of the Railroaders, but the runs made were attributable to misplays made behind him and cannot be charged to his pitching. Look at the detail; it speaks for itself.

WAS LIEUT. SUTTON MURDERED?

Naval Court Inquiry Into Death of Young Officer.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, July 13.—Whether the proceedings of the Court of Inquiry, which will investigate the circumstances connected with the death of Lieut. James N. Sutton, from the effects of a pistol wound at Annapolis in 1907, will be open to the public or will be held in secret will be determined tomorrow by Assistant Secretary Winthrop, of the Navy Department.

Ordinarily matters of this kind are left to the discretion of the court, but there has been such widespread interest in this case that the matter has been brought to the attention of the Assistant Secreary. If the sessions are public he purpose will be to satisfy the public concerning the facts in the case.

Annapolis, Md., July 13.—Announcement was made at the office of Superintendent Bowyer, of the Naval Academy, today that Major Harry Leonard, U. S. M. C., would act as the judge advocate of the second court of inquiry which will try to straighten out the tangle of conflicting testimony surrounding the death of Lieut. Sutton.

Major Leonard, it had previously been understood, would act as the recorder of the court. As the prosecuting officer in the case it will devolve upon Major Leonard to summon all witnesses who may be desired by the court. He is now on duty at the naval prison at Portsmouth, N. H.

Neither William Owens, the Annapolis chauffeur who took out the officers involved in the affray which resulted in the death of Sutton, nor Undertaker Taylor, who prepared the body for burial and saw the wound, has yet received a summons. As a general court the Second Board, it is now stated, will have full authority to summon civilians as well as naval men.
